—W. L. Doud of Chicago writes: "Enclosed please find $1 for another year's subscription to the Dispatch, as we find it is the only sure way of getting news from our friends and relatives."

—Government census taking begins Friday, April 15, and the work must be completed in villages and cities in two weeks; longer time is given in the rural districts. See to it that you are properly listed.

—Mrs. Jennie Carter of Albion, Pa., formerly of Canfield, writes: "I saw No. 1 on the Dispatch last week and know that a new year has started and $1 is enclosed. May you have many more prosperous years."

—It is estimated that 40,000 bituminous coal miners went out on a strike April 1 for an increase of five cents a ton in pick mining. Here's hoping they will not have to wait long for their modest demand to be met.

—Sulphur fumes from burning slack piles on the Ambler farm have long annoyed Lisbon people and the council of that place has decided to scatter the smoldering heaps by using dynamite, and in that manner extinguish the fire.

—Since last fall Mayor Hinchliffe of Lisbon has assessed fines in 48 cases aggregating nearly $2,000, and the best of it he has collected more than $1,300. The bulk of the money came from violators of the liquor laws and gamblers.

—Sept. F. J. Roller of the Niles schools, has had a business offer made him by a prominent Ohio firm to join it as a stockholder and officer, and he may decide to accept it, rather than the proposition he has under consideration at Detroit, Mich.

—Nine automobiles purchased by the city of Cleveland at a cost of $18,000 were sold at auction the other day for about 10 per cent. of the purchase price, the buzz wagons bringing from $400 down to $58, and they may have been dear enough at that.

—Dan. R. Hanna of Ravenna will give the Portage county agricultural society $10,000 provided double that sum is raised in some manner to put the society on its feet. Most of the buildings on the grounds have been burned the past few months and there is an indebtedness of considerable size.

—The Youngstown Journal kindly says: "C. C. Fowler of the Canfield Dispatch that is now on its 34th year of merit, money making and integrity, has been with that old reliable, household newspaper about all his life. Aside from his amiable wife he could hardly find a better or more agreeable companion."

—The state won its first victory last week in its suit to recover interest on state funds from former officials when Judge Evans of the Franklin county common pleas court overruled the demurrers of the bondsmen of former State Treasurer Cameron and McKinnon to the petitions of Attorney General Denman, suing them for money alleged to be due the state as interest on public funds. The bondsmen must now make answer to the suits and stand trial.

—Warren Chronicle: Some time ago the newspapers were furnished with a dispatch from Sharon stating that a patient in the Buhl hospital there had yielded up the longest appendix that was known to surgeons. A Mineral Ridge man comes forward now and can claim that honor. Edward Todd of Mineral Ridge, who was operated upon at the City hospital on Thursday afternoon, can in the future look upon a portion of his anatomy preserved in a bottle, an appendix 7 1/2 inches long, or one-fourth inch longer than the one boasted of at Sharon.

—Henry White died last week Wednesday at his home in Goshen township of heart trouble. He had resided on the same farm for half a century, his death occurring on the 50th anniversary. In connection with farming he was an extensive manufacturer of ice cream which he marketed in Salem. He was an excellent man and had many friends. He is survived by two brothers, Matthew, of Alliance, Frank of Berlin Center, a half brother, Edward, of West Unity, O., and one sister, Mrs. W. G. Cassady, of Canfield. Funeral services held Saturday morning at the home were conducted by Rev. Mr. Petty. Interment in Bunker Hill cemetery.

—A letter received from Mrs. M. E. Servis of Hanford, Cal., for many years a resident of Canfield, says: "Enclosed find $1 for the Dispatch, another year. I enjoy very much the news from my old home."

—An Atwater correspondent writes: "Lightning struck a hickory tree in a five acre field 40 rods southwest of the Congregational church at mid-night of Saturday, March 19. The big tree was split in twain and the crash of the bolt as it exploded was terrific. It was a rare event for March."

—Postmasters the country over have received from the post office department a request to all rural patrons to have their mail boxes painted a pure white color, also to have their names printed on the boxes in plain letters. By order of that department rural carriers have been directed to report all places where the roads are continually in bad condition and unless such roads are repaired the service on these roads will be discontinued.

—A chemical analysis of the human body results in some interesting disclosures. We are told that the normal healthy man who weighs one hundred and fifty pounds is the exact equivalent, chemically speaking, of one thousand hens eggs. He consists of thirty-eight quarts of water, which makes up over half his weight, sixty pounds of sugar, twenty pounds of fat, iron enough for seven spoons, two pounds of lime, thirty-five hundred cubic feet of gas, oxygen, hydrogen and nitrogen, over twenty pounds of carbon, or enough for about ten thousand lead pencils, phosphorus enough for eight hundred matches, and starch, sulphur, chloride of potash and hydrochloric acid in lesser quantities.

TENTATIVE VALUES ON REALTY.

"Cabbage Day."

I have heard of a village in New York where a certain day of the week is set apart as "cabbage day," and upon that day nobody is at home to anybody else. This seems a good plan, but all villages are not so systematic, and so, despite the asseverations of the cooking teachers that there is no need for cabbages to our well at all, the dwellers in small city houses after guests from a feeling that a caller came from the front door what the family dinner is to be. I have lately learned a great scheme—to set beside the cabbage cup a small cup of vinegar where it will gently simmer. This done, the lady at the front door will not preserve a delicate reticence, but will ask, in the very moment of greeting, "Oh, what good things you are cooking!" For the aroma of cabbage and boiling vinegar mingles into a fine counterfeit of the smell of pickles cooking.—Farm Journal

Not a Drop of Alcohol

What is a "tonic"? A medicine that increases the strength or tone of the whole system. What is an "alterative"? A medicine that alters or changes unhealthy action to healthy action. Name the best "tonic and alterative"? Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only Sarsaparilla entirely free from alcohol. Ask your own doctor all about it. Never take a medicine doctors cannot endorse. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Without daily action of the bowels poisonous products must be absorbed. Then you have impure blood, biliousness, headache. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Pills for constipation.

ROOSEVELT CANCELS RECEPTIONS IN ROME

DEcries ALL EFFORTS TO CAUSE OR INFLAME RELIGIOUS ANIMOSITIES.

COLONEL FURIOUS OVER LETTER MADE PUBLIC BY METHODIST DIVINE.

(By A. J. Lambert, Special Cable.)

Rome, Apr. 6.—The city was in turmoil yesterday. Polemic has followed polemic. The Vatican answered the Methodists; the Methodists answered the Vatican; accusations, rebuttals, counter accusations and pronouncements thundered consecutively throughout the day, making Rome reverberate with the echoes of this verbal war. The only serene figure was Col. Roosevelt, who has cancelled his reception at the American embassy. The colonel alone emerges with dignity, distinction and prestige. He seemed to have passed to altitudes above this controversy, to judge from his demeanor as he dashed here and there in a huge motor car, sight-seeing. He surprised King Victor with his intimate knowledge of every arm of Italy's military and naval service of the present day.

The Rev. Tiplie has topped his fellow Methodists. His superior reputation his statement and his authority to speak on behalf of the Methodists of Rome. Dr. Spencer says his statements are merely individual and not official.

A priest called on Roosevelt at the hotel and assured the colonel that the American colony of priests in Rome unanimously endorsed his attitude toward the Vatican.

Whatever indiscretion Del Val committed has been more than counterbalanced by the unforgivable wretched blunder of Rev. Dr. Tiplie, whose statement has lowered the controversy to the level of vulgar abuse. This was followed by another later, intended for Italian consumption. It read:

"More especially in the last two or three years the losses to the church in Italy have been appalling to its authorities. Italians by the thousands have discarded the church of their fathers. Utterly unable to check the growth of the anti-clerical sentiment the Vatican has become more and more desperate until at the present hour, its caution and sanctity are thrown to the winds. It has made itself ridiculous to the eyes of the Italians as well as the world. Nearly half a century ago Methodism entered Italy with the open Bible, the personal Christ and education for the masses. To-day the Vatican with one hand has set the seal of success on our work. It has published a broadsheet that it asked of Roosevelt a pledge that he should not recognize the Methodists during his stay in Rome. Roosevelt refused to give that assurance. We ask no greater vindication of our work than this testimonial from the Vatican. To be thus antagonized by the Roman hierarchy is to be named the friend of the Roman people. It is to be noted that Col. Roosevelt does not endorse the accusations against the Methodists of America. Bertrand Martin Tiplie."

Roosevelt was furious when he read Tiplie's last amazing statement. He declared he did not want to meet the persons who are implicated in the perpetration of such a document, adding: "If the Vatican is bad then the Methodists are worse."

After a consultation with friends he decided not to hold any more receptions here and asked the American ambassador to cancel all arrangements which had been made for today, saying: "As regards all efforts to cause or inflame religious animosities because of what has occurred between the Vatican and myself, I can only reiterate with all my power the statements I have already made in my letter to the Outlook." Roosevelt will leave here to-night.
